THINGS YOU CAN'T CHANGE (BUT CAN MARKET AROUND)

- 1 Street name: live on “Wimpy Way”? Street names may stick out to potential buyers and be a detractor. You can't change it. You can (a) make light of it or (b) downplay it in your marketing.
- 2 A neighbor's home: live next to a hoarder? You may not be able to conceal that fact, but you can direct attention elsewhere by pointing out “nearby” amenities or positives about the neighborhood.
- 3 Power plants or landfills: close to utilities? These can lower your property value. However, you can again focus on amenities “in the other direction” or nearby that offset that deterrent.
- 4 Nearby foreclosures: comps are a big deal. If there are numerous, visible foreclosures and eyesores near your home, you'll have to go the extra mile to amp up your own curb appeal and show off in comparison.
- 5 Bad schools: if the school system is poor or has a bad reputation, it can be a stigma for families. You may choose to market your home to elderly people or busy professionals who may not have children.

AESTHETICS

- 6 Bright colors inside: a common piece of advice offered by REALTORS® is “neutralize your decor” before selling.
- 7 Bright colors outside: you may love your hot pink shutters and door, but your outdoor paint is also a point of consideration for curb appeal and home value.
- 8 Excessive landscaping: if you are a horticulturist, you may love the proliferation of spidery plants and unique vines. The maintenance this implies for homeowners could be a turnoff.
- 9 Dirty driveway and sidewalk: dirt and residue on a sidewalk and driveway can make your home look dingy or older than it is. A little pressure washing can go a long way
- 10 Dirty roof: same goes with a roof. It may look older than it is if it’s caked with gunk and grime. Get it professionally cleaned and you’ll get fewer questions about how old it is.

POSITIONING

11

The lot: corner lots may sell for more and where you are on a lot can be used to promote a higher value. Some people love the phrase, “eastern facing windows” in a home description.

12

Major roads: if you are near highly trafficked roads, it can be a drawback for some buyers. Talk up new windows or other ways the home is shielded from the noise and busyness.

13

Nearby neighbors: if you have a lot of renters in your neighborhood, it may be less appealing to future buyers.

14

Major airports: if you are near an airport, buyers may be afraid of the noise. Instead, you can bill the house as “commuter friendly”!

15

Near a cemetery: some people are superstitious or just don’t want to live near a cemetery. The good news is, cemeteries are often beautifully kept pieces of land. For the right buyer, this can be a benefit.
